General Objection

ExxonMobil objects to the certification requirement and reserves all rights to the extent that the requirement of a certification and its terms herein are inconsistent with contractual provisions and conduct under the Administrative Consent Order (ACO) executed between ExxonMobil and the Department. Further, due to the limitations imposed by the necessary manner in which data and other information is collected and summarized, there is no one person who has direct knowledge of all the information used to prepare this submission and who also has overall responsibility for all of the information contained in this submission.

N.J.A.C. 7:26E-1.5(a)

This submission is certified pursuant to N.J.A.C. 7:26B-1.6 and the certification is made subject to the statutory provisions of N.J.S.A. 2C:28-3(a). Because of the limitations imposed by the manner in which information is collected and summarized, there is no one person who has direct knowledge of all the information used to prepare the submission and who also has overall responsibility for all of the information contained in the submission; however, based on the above and the General Objection and my review of the information transmitted in this submission:

"I certify under penalty of law that I have personally examined and am familiar with the information submitted herein including all attached documents, and that based on my inquiry of those individuals immediately responsible for obtaining the information, to the best of my knowledge, I believe that the submitted information is true, accurate and complete. I am aware that there are significant civil penalties for knowingly submitting false, inaccurate or incomplete information and that I am committing a crime of the fourth degree if I make a written false statement which I do not believe to be true. I am also aware that if I knowingly direct or authorize the violation of any statute, I am personally liable for the penalties."
